

THE BARRE DAILY TIMES

VOL. IX--NO. 119.

BARRE, VT., THURSDAY, AUG. 3, 1905.

PRICE, ONE CENT.

13 DEATHS IN 24 HOURS

Yellow Fever Claims 81
Deaths in Fortnight.

THIRTY-TWO NEW CASES

Ninety Per Cent of Stricken Ones Are Italians--New Cases in Mississippi and Arkansas.

New Orleans, Aug. 3.--There have been thirteen deaths from yellow fever in the past twenty-four hours, all Italians. The number of new cases today is thirty-two. In the past fortnight there have been eighty-one deaths and three hundred and seventy-eight new cases. Ninety per cent of the stricken are Italians. There is a new case in Hattiesburg, Miss., also in Texicoma, Ark.

CZAR'S HEALTH.

Causes Apprehension at St. Petersburg
--Unable to Sleep.

Berlin, August 3.--Metzger Zeitling says that it is informed from St. Petersburg that apprehension regarding the health of the Czar is felt at the Russian capital. The Czar according to the information to this paper is unable to sleep nights and has suffered several painful attacks of heart trouble.

ONLY ACCEPTABLE CONDITION.

Of Peace Proposals Is the Evacuation of Manchuria and Korea.

St. Petersburg, August 3.--The Moscow Gazette says that the only acceptable condition of peace is the evacuation of Manchuria and Korea by the Japanese. Russia will considerably forego demanding the payment of an indemnity.

VICEROY FOR FINLAND.

Czar Decides to Establish New Form of Government.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 3.--The Czar has decided to establish a viceroyalty for the government of Finland. The method of conducting affairs will be the same as in the East when the war began. It is expected that General Kleigs will be appointed first viceroy.

Russian Diplomats Say Nothing.

New York, August 3.--The Russian diplomats got in some fine work today by keeping silent. M. Witte had nothing to say to supplement the statement given to the press upon his arrival yesterday. He will pay an unofficial visit to the President tomorrow. The Japanese are keeping silent and refuse to discuss negotiations until they meet at Portsmouth.

RUN OVER BY TRAIN, DIED THIS MORNING

Frank Mott, Aged 21, Run Over by Train at Alburg--One Arm
Cut Off.

Alburg, August 3.--Frank Mott, aged 21 years, son of Thomas Mott of Alburg, was run over by the Rutland Canadian railroad train at 9 o'clock last evening while returning from Rouses Point. One arm was cut off and he died at 3 o'clock this morning.

TOOK TRIP TO ALASKA.

Son of Secretary Wilson Said to Have Cost Public $700.

Washington, D. C., August 3.--There is comment at the department of agriculture since various species of graft and perquisites have been disclosed, concerning a trip which Jasper Wilson, Secretary Wilson's son, and his private secretary took to Alaska a few months ago. It is reported that this trip cost the government about $700. It is said that young Mr. Wilson, during that time visited a gold mine, which is operated by one of his friends, and it has been rumored that Jasper Wilson was interested in this mine. The trip lasted several months.

Mr. Wilson was asked about his trip, and he replied that there was nothing in it of which he was ashamed.

BEAR ON AN ICEBERG.

Spectacle Which Greeted the Caronia's Passengers.

New York, August 3.--Capt. R. C. Warr of the steamer Caronia, in port from Liverpool yesterday, reports that on Sunday, when 1,000 miles out at sea, the Caronia passed through the greatest electrical storm he has ever witnessed. An iceberg had just been passed, and the ship headed into the storm. So close was the berg that a polar bear was plainly seen on its edge, and the passengers made snapshots of him with cameras. Then the light died out and clouds of inky blackness rose.

Capt. Warr says the temperature fell to 53 degrees, and the wind rose from 20 miles to 60 an hour.

COURT IN A CHAPEL.

Central Brattleboro Edifice Converted to New Use.

Brattleboro August 3.--The chapel of the Center Congregational church is converted temporarily into a wireless telegraph station. A session of the United States circuit court is being held there before Judge Hoyt H. Wheeler. The title of the case which is being heard is the National Electrical Signalling Co. vs. the DeForest Wireless Telegraph Co., et al. The complainant is a company operating under patents of R. A. Fessenden of Washington, D. C. The defendant is a rival company operating under the patents of Lee DeForest.

The suit is brought for alleged infringements of the Fessenden patents, which constitute what is admitted to be the best receiver in general use. Application was made to Judge Lacombe of New York for an injunction restraining the defendant from using the receiver but Judge Lacombe held that the case ought to reach a final hearing before a petition for injunction was acted upon. Consequently the case was brought before Judge Wheeler to determine whether the Fessenden patent has been infringed upon.

Wireless telegraph instruments have been established in the chapel, which are in active operation, and expert operators are in attendance. It is stated by those connected with the case that over $100,000 has been spent in litigation thus far.

DESPERATELY CONTESTED.

Readville Races Brought Out Some Close Brushes.

Readville, Mass., August 3.--The mid-summer meeting at the New England Breeders' track opened here yesterday. Shortly before the first heat a shower softened the track and the drivers were unable to go nearer to the pole than middle of the course. Despite this, John M. paced his heats in 2:09 3/4, had pressed by the Albany, N. Y., stallion, Nervolo, in each heat.

The 2:16 trot resulted in a series of desperately contested heats in which Jennie Scott from Hamilton, Ont., was finally successful. In the final heat she beat Grattan Bells by inches only. The New York entry, Lady Gail Hamilton, had the speed of the party in the 2:12 trot, losing the opening heat by breaking.

Free-for-all pace, purse $600.--John M. won two straight heats, both in 2:09 3/4. Nervolo, second, Joe Pointer, third.

2:12 trot, purse $600.--Lady Gail Hamilton won second, third and fourth heats and race; time, 2:15 3/4, 2:15 3/4, 2:14 3/4. El Milagro won first heat in 2:15 3/4. Miss Gay, Single K., also started.

2:16 trot, purse $600.--Jennie Scott won second, third and fifth heats and race. Time, 2:15 3/4, 2:16, 2:17; Grattan Bells won fourth heat in 2:10 3/4; Chime Bells won first heat in 2:17 3/4; W. J. Lewis, Frank T., also started. Mascotto was distanced. Jimmie Michael and Nancy Nelson were drawn.

DEFAULTER IN SOUTH AFRICA.

Frank C. Miles Formerly Owned Fancy
Farm in Londonderry.

Brattleboro, August 3.--The despatch in the Boston newspapers in regard to the discovery of Frank C. Miles, the Boston defaulter, in Cape Town, South Africa, was of decided interest to the people of Londonderry because of the fact that up to the time of Miles' disappearance nine years ago he owned a fancy dairy farm between the villages of Londonderry and South Londonderry, on which he expended a sum estimated to be upwards of $30,000. He spent the summers at the farm, going from Boston to Chester by rail, and usually driving a four-in-hand to his estate, which comprised over 400 acres. The farm was known as the Mount Lake farm, bordering on Lowell lake. Since Miles' disappearance the farm has been sold to George T. Patterson of Springfield, Mass.

SHE CLAIMS NEGLIGENCE.

Mrs. LaFermier Was Disrobed by Uncovered Shafting.

Burlington, Aug. 3.--Suit was brought yesterday by Mrs. Kate LaFermier against John Young for the recovery of $300. She was injured June 3 at Mr. Young's laundry while in his employ. Her clothing became entangled in a shafting that runs along the floor and it was torn from her body. She claimed to have sustained injuries about the arms and legs. The claim is based upon the allegation that Mr. Young was negligent in not having a suitable covering for the shafting. The case will be tried August 8.

NOT LICENSED IN BURLINGTON.

Two New Yorkers Were Not Married in That City.

Burlington, August 3.--Announcement has been made in New York of the marriage in this city of Mrs. Harold P. Vynne, daughter of Col. W. D. Mann of Town Topics, and ex-State Senator Albert A. Wray of Brooklyn.

An investigation at the city clerk's office shows that no marriage license was issued there. As both parties were from without the State it was necessary for them to procure a license in the town or city in which they were married. If the ceremony occurred in Burlington it was illegal.

WOULDN'T LET HIM SPEAK.

Salvation Army Jew Got Storming of Sand and Eggs in Burlington.

Burlington, August 3.--A Jew from Montreal, who is working with the local Salvation Army, attempted to speak in the open air in the Jew settlement last night, and was insulted by spectators who threw sand in the speaker's eyes. Eggs and other weapons were brought into use. The police in the neighborhood, who is a Jew took no action.

The speaker finally left and spoke in City Hall park.

BACK TO STATE OF NATIVITY

Vermonters From Massachusetts Arrive in Rutland

HEADED BY COL. CLARK.

Spent Day Visiting Industrial Concerns of That City--Will Be the Guests of Senator Proctor for Two Days.

Rutland, August 3.--About 40 members of the Vermont association of Boston arrived in this city as scheduled at 10:15 o'clock this morning from New York via the Hudson in charge of Conductor Walter B. Round of Marster's touring agency to be guests of the citizens of Rutland and Senator Redfield Proctor until Friday night.

When the train arrived this morning a committee of 15 prominent business men was on hand to meet the guests and they were immediately conducted by special trolley car to the plant of the Columbian Marble Quarrying company. After going over the various departments of the big establishment they rode to the new mill of the Vermont Marble company at Center Rutland, said to be the most modern saving mill in the world. From here a special train on the Clarendon & Pittsford railroad took the guests to Proctor, where all the processes of putting marble in marketable shape were explained by a corps of competent guides. At 1 o'clock the ladies of the village served luncheon in the Young Men's Christian association building. The afternoon was spent in looking over the new hospital and other points of interest and in securing souvenirs of the quarries. At 5 a special train will bring the party back to Rutland.

The day's entertainment with a reception at the Rutland Hotel, tendered by a committee of 40 gentlemen and 30 ladies. President C. E. Paige of the board of aldermen, acting for Mayor J. F. Manning, who is ill, is chairman of the committee.

Tomorrow the Bostonians will visit The Maples, the home of Mrs. Julia C. R. Door, the well known Vermont poet. From there they will be taken by automobile and barges to the Rutland Country club to partake of the hospitality of the club at dinner. The visitors will return home in different parties, taking different routes to suit their tastes.

The members of the party are: Albert Clarke of Boston, Mass., president of the association; Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Cole of Beverly, Mass., ex-state senator; Edgar Potter of South Framingham, Mass., president of the local Vermont association; Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Proctor of Somerville, Mass., ex-mayor of Somerville; Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Fiske of Ashland, Mass., president of the Vermont Veterans' association; W. K. Bigelow of Salem, Mass., proprietor of a large department store; H. R. Burrington, principal Dean academy, Franklin, and ex-representative; and Miss Burrington. Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Bush of Boston, ex-president of the Vermont Veterans' association; Dr. and Mrs. C. J. Allen of Winchester, Mass., Mrs. Allen being president of the Daughters of Vermont; James M. Gleason of Boston, treasurer of the John Hancock Insurance company; W. S. Burt, Mr. and Mrs. Almon J. Fairbanks, and E. W. Kimball of Boston; Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Hodgdon, Miss Christine Hodgdon, Clinton Hodgdon, Miss Priscilla H. Marsh and Miss Harriet L. Robinson of Malden, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Allen, C. M. Hutchinson and Mr. and Mrs. P. J. McGrath of Cambridge, Mass.; Mrs. A. W. Weeks of Waltham; Dr. Clara E. Gary, Mrs. A. N. Lincoln and Miss Lincoln of Winocon Camp, Alton Bay, N. H.; Carl B. Sanborn of Salem, Mass.; Miss Kate M. Stone of South Framingham, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Huntington and George Upton of Lowell, Mass.; Miss Mattie A. Cole of Fitchburg, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Cole of Beverly, Mass.; Adolphus Holton of Norwood, Mass.; and Mrs. Leonard B. Nichols and Mrs. Walter Clapp of Brookline, Mass.

Among prominent Vermonters who assisted Rutland and the Proctor people in welcoming the visitors to the state were Gov. Bell, Hon. Merrill, Frank L. Green and John Southwick.

HIGH CHIEF RANGER CANNON.

Was Re-elected at the Boston Convention Yesterday.

Boston, Mass., August 3.--At yesterday's session of the international convention of Catholic Foresters, High Chief Ranger Thomas H. Cannon of Chicago was re-elected by acclamation. His salary was increased to $2,500 a year. For high medical examiner, Dr. J. T. Smyth of Chicago was elected.

The motion to amend the constitution so as to exclude from membership all persons engaged in the liquor traffic, especially bartenders and brewers, was lost by a vote of 25 yeas to 88 nays.

PECK ADMITTED HER.

Anna Batchelder Says That Sheriff Knew
What She Wanted.

Bellows Falls, August 3.--At the investigation of the state prison by the special commission yesterday the most interesting development was the testimony given by Supl. Lovell and Miss Anna Batchelder regarding her admission to the cell of Mary Rogers to get an interview with the murderer. Her testimony tends to show that Sheriff H. H. Peck understood her mission and gave her permission to see the woman and get the interview.

SEVEN WERE INJURED

In Diabolical Attempt to Blow
Up Tenement House

IN NEW YORK CITY TODAY

Four More Overcome by Smoke--Kind of Explosive Used Is Not Known Building in Flames.

New York, August 3.--Seven were injured and four overcome by smoke in a fierce fire which followed a diabolical attempt to blow up a three story double tenement on Lorimer street early this morning. The kind of explosive used is not known. The stairs and the ground floor were completely wrecked and the lower part of the building was converted into a seething mass of flames.

BUILT ON NEIGHBOR'S LAND.

C. M. Carpenter of Middlebury Must Move About a Foot.

Middlebury, August 3.--C. M. Carpenter of Brandon, who last spring purchased the MacDonald property on Main street and who has the frame work of the first story and most of that for the second of a new store building and tenement erected, found out Wednesday that he had built his foundation over on to the land of J. H. Sargent and he will have to move the whole thing, foundation and all, the necessary distance to get it all upon his own land. This will cause Mr. Carpenter considerable of an expense, as well as making him an annoying delay with his building.

DIED FROM INJURIES.

Fair Haven Man Killed at Center Rutland Yesterday.

Rutland, August 3.--Richard Wallace of Fair Haven, age about 60 years, employed as section hand by the Rutland street railway company, was run over by a work car of the company at a point near Center Rutland yesterday afternoon and injured so seriously that he died after removal to the hospital.

His left leg and left arm were crushed. As far as can be ascertained Wallace's attention was distracted by the noise of an approaching train, the two tracks being in close proximity at the scene of the accident. Above the noise of the train Wallace did not notice the approaching car, which was one of the short ones used for carrying tools, etc., and probably the whole car passed over his body.

DEATH OF CLINTON SMITH.

Was Formerly a Well Known Builder in Vermont.

Middlebury, August 3.--Clinton Smith died at his home in Washington, D. C., yesterday of typhoid fever. He was a native of Middlebury and one of Addison county's best known architects and contractors a dozen or fifteen years ago. He was formerly a member of the firm of Smith & Allen, contractors, of this town.

For many years he was inspector of government buildings in Washington, D. C., but recently he had relinquished that position and engaged in contracting. He built the town hall and court house in this place, the United States government building in Montpelier, besides many of the largest buildings in other Vermont cities. The deceased was about 55 years of age and leaves a wife, three sons and a married daughter.

COMMANDER U. R. K. OF P.

Dead at His Home in Indianapolis--
Commander Since 1884.

Indianapolis, August 3.--Gen. James R. Cranahan, commander of the Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias of the World, died at his home here at four o'clock this morning. Rheumatism was the direct cause of death. He had been the Knights' commander since its organization in 1884.

Death of a Rutland Man.

Rutland, August 3.--Michael R. Walsh, who had been a member of the board of education since 1897, died at his home on Forest street yesterday after a brief illness with pleuro-pneumonia. He had been employed by the Howe Scale company for many years and at the time of his death was foreman of the brass foundry. He was born in Ireland 56 years ago. Besides his widow he leaves two sons and three daughters. The funeral will be held at St. Peter's church Friday morning at nine o'clock.

Mr. Walsh's successor on the board of education will be nominated by the mayor, the nomination to be confirmed by the board of aldermen.

MAYOR FORGED CHECK.

Patterson, N. J., Chief Executive Is in Hiding.

Patterson, Aug. 3.--The defalcations of Mayor Belcher of this city continue to grow. A forged check for five thousand dollars has been found in a Patterson savings institution. The Mayor is still away from the city but friends scout the suicide theory. No criminal action is likely as friends have rallied to his support to make good all defalcations.

FINE DAY FOR PICNIC.

Baptist Sunday School at Caledonia
Park Yesterday.

The Baptist Sunday school held their annual picnic at Caledonia Park yesterday. There were fully 200 people present at the grounds during the day and all had a very enjoyable time. Lemonade was furnished free during the day, and ice cream and pop corn were sold on the grounds.

In an exciting base ball game the B. J. A. C. defeated the Junior Barons by the score of 7 to 3. In quoits Rev. W. A. Kinzie and Deacon F. A. Hutchinson were victorious. The game of tether-ball, introduced by Rev. Kinzie, proved very popular with both old and young.

The winners in the girls' races were: Ethel Inglis, Eva Craig, Hazel Kinney, Mary Bagrie, Marion Perry and Vera Cheney.

In the boys' races the winners were: Harley Morehouse, Douglas Inglis and Raymond Cave.

IN HONOR OF ADM. CLARK.

Reception Will Be Given at Lake Mansfield Trout Club.

Invitations are being extended to the members of the Lake Mansfield Trout club and some others to be present at the dinner and reception which will be tendered on August 10 to Admiral Charles E. Clark, U. S. N., and his family, the members of which are summering at the club. W. T. Dewey of Montpelier has just received a letter from Dr. Brigham, president of the club, to that effect. It is expected that the affair will be a notable occurrence in the history of the club.

On that day Admiral Clark will have reached his 62nd birthday, the age limit in the United States navy. It will therefore mark his retirement from the service. His plans are not made for the future, but Admiral Clark says that he intends to spend more of his time in Vermont.

THE OUTLAW SEEN.

Last Member of Rupert Gang Was in Troy, N. Y. Monday.

Bennington, August 3.--Merritt Reed, the uncaptured member of the Rupert gang of outlaws, was in Manchester last Friday night about three hours after the fracas and shooting occurred. Reed had been at work for the Rutland railroad and had $18 due him. About midnight he appeared at the office of the paymaster at that station, presented a pay check for the amount, which was promptly given him.

Reed was also seen by several others, and parties who were at the railroad station say that he did not take any train from there that night.

At the time that Reed drew his pay at Manchester Depot the news of the shooting had not reached there, although it was known at the street. The general belief is that he will be caught before long, and that he will be found with some of his relatives.

W. N. Penfield, who was in Troy Monday night, says that he saw Reed in Samuel Groggin's saloon there. He has known Reed for some time and is sure that he saw him.

STATE SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

Annual Convention to Be Held at St.
Johnsbury October 17-19.

At a recent meeting of the executive committee of the Vermont State Sunday School association, plans for the annual state Sunday school convention were discussed. The convention will be held in St. Johnsbury October 17-19. An unusually large number of delegates from all parts of the state are expected to attend the convention and the programme will include the usual services, speeches and conferences. The state executive committee have been informed by the international association that their representative at the convention will be Mrs. Mary Foster of Peoria, Ill. Mrs. Foster is an earnest Sunday school worker and for the past few years has been doing remarkable work in Mexico. She is the person who prepares elementary Sunday school lesson helps in the Sunday School Times. The committee consider themselves fortunate in securing her presence at the annual convention.

COMPLAINS OF ODORS.

Burlington Rendering Company's Plant to Be Inspected.

Burlington, August 3.--As the result of a letter written by J. H. Sternberg to Mayor Burke regarding the plant of the Burlington Rendering Co., a thorough investigation of that institution will be made. A committee composed of C. P. Smith, H. W. Allen, Charles Barker, W. B. McKillip and H. B. Shaw has been appointed to confer with the local board of health in regard to the matter. The "feeding station" for this factory are at Montreal, St. Albans, Barre, and Brattleboro, whose products are brought over the Central Vermont road and from Bellows Falls, Bennington and Rutland over the Rutland railroad. The bones, tallow and other waste products of the butcher shops are collected at these places daily by agents of the company, packed in ice in air tight barrels and shipped each night to Burlington. Here the contents of the car from the various places are transferred to one car from each road and these two cars run to the factory, reaching there about noon each day. So all the waste from the various shops reaches factory within 12 hours after it is shipped and it is taken in hand by the workmen at the factory as soon as it arrives and properly cared for before night.

ONE KILLED, SEVEN INJURED.

In Wreck on Baltimore & Ohio Railroad
This Morning.

Somerset, N. Y., August 3.--A train on the Somerset & Cambria branch of the Baltimore & Ohio was wrecked this morning at Faint Creek bridge. There was one person killed and seven injured.

TO REPRESENT WHOLE BODY

President Francis J. Clarke of Massachusetts A. F. of L.

AT BARRE CONVENTION.

President Gompers Delegates Him--The Sessions Will Open in Carpenter's
Hall Next Tuesday Morning.

Francis J. Clarke, president of the Massachusetts State Branch, A. F. L., has been requested by President Samuel Gompers of the American Federation of Labor to represent the A. F. L. at the Vermont state convention. President Clarke has signified his willingness to be present, and will undoubtedly do much towards enlightening the trades unionists of Vermont on the live issues in Massachusetts and the labor movement in general.

The convention will open in the carpenter's union hall, Nichols block, this city, next Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. The hall is to be decorated in an appropriate manner. The arrangements on the part of the local committee are now about completed.

CHURCH WILL BE REDEDICATED.

Williamstown Congregational Society
Has Made Extensive Repairs.

Williamstown, August 3.--The programme for the rededication of the Congregational church in this town has been arranged and the exercises will take place during Old Home Week, on Aug. 10, morning and afternoon. The programme is as follows:

Devotional service at 10.45, followed by address of welcome by Rev. D. H. Strong, the pastor, at 11 a. m. Rev. J. Newton Perrin will give the response, which will be followed by singing, brief addresses, letters of greeting, etc.

At 1.45 o'clock dinner will be served. At 1.45 the afternoon services will commence. The will be as follows:

Anthem, "Send Out Thy Light," Gounod.

Invocation.

Scripture, I Kings 8:10-30.

Hymn, "The Church's One Foundation."

Prayer of Dedication.

Rev. C. H. Merrill, D. D.

Musical selection.

Historical Paper, G. A. Ainsworth.

Anthem, "Jubilate Deo." Buck.

Sermon, Rev. L. F. Reed.

Closing Prayer.

Hymn, "Glorious Things of Thee Are Spoken."

Benediction.

Enters Business in Boston.

Rural Mail Carrier O. W. Hutchinson of route 1 has gone to Boston where he will take charge of a repairing business, in which he recently bought an interest. Arthur W. Robinson will take Mr. Hutchinson's route.

WASHINGTON.

List of flowers showing the respect of the relatives and friends of the late Ralph Bigelow who was so suddenly taken from his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Bigelow, was as follows: Pillow of pinks and roses, from father and mother; 14 pink and white roses, from Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Bigelow; large wreath of roses, pinks and ferns, from Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Worthingley, Mr. and Mrs. E. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Worthingley and Fred E. Worthingley; bouquet of white pinks, Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Cheney; bouquet of white pinks, Grace Cheney; bouquet of roses and cut flowers, Mrs. G. W. Bigelow; bouquet of roses, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Smith; bouquet of white carnations, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bigelow; bouquet of carnations and ferns, Dr. and Mrs. H. O. Worthingley; bouquet of carnations and roses, Washington Grange; pillow, Mrs. Jennie Sawyer; bouquet of white carnations, Mr. and Mrs. U. B. York; bouquet, Ray Bigelow; bouquet of carnations and roses, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Caldwell; bouquet of carnations and roses, Mr. and Mrs. L. I. Thompson; bouquet of carnations and smilax, Mrs. L. D. Tillotson; bouquet of poppies and roses, Mrs. J. D. Eastman; bouquet, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Wilson; bouquet of carnations, Grace Clough; bouquet of sweet peas, Mabel Hanson; bouquet of sweet peas, Florence Taplin; bouquet of sweet peas, Mrs. H. G. Moody; bouquet of pansies, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Johnson; bouquet of roses, C. H. Smith; bouquet of sweet peas, H. Downing; bouquet of poppies and ferns, E. C. B. in white, Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Hyland; wreath, Mrs. G. W. Wason; wreath, Mrs. C. H. Darling, Mr. H. F. Dickey; cypress vine, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Seaver; pink and white pinks, Mrs. S. W. Flint, Mrs. Ella Spencer; bouquet of pinks, Nina Tillotson; bouquet of sweet peas, Mrs. M. B. Curtis, Mrs. J. B. Emerson; large bouquet of poppies and large mound of ten weeks' stock, Mrs. E. Benson; bouquet of sweet peas, Mrs. Emma Taplin. The school mates, numbering about forty, marched to the last resting place of the deceased and left a beautiful bouquet in the grave.